Description

Free Hold 4-bedroom resale villa in a Sea Front newly developed residential resort in Coral Bay, Paphos, featuring a communal swimming pool and fitness facilities.

Situated along the Mediterranean coastline in one of the most prestigious areas of Coral Bay, the property is just a five-minute walk from the sandy Corallia Beach, restaurants, bus stops, and hotels. The Akamas Nature Reserve is also located a short distance to the north.

Set on an extensive 65,000 m² plot, this exclusive resort-style development comprises 65 luxury detached villas and junior villas, offering a private residential environment in a prime coastal location on the outskirts of Paphos.

The complex combines privacy, security, and professional property management services with access to a range of leisure facilities. Residents can also take advantage of the restaurants, bars, and spa facilities at the five-star Coral Beach and Thalassa hotels and resorts, both within walking distance.

With its established resort infrastructure, proximity to the beach, and convenient access to local amenities, this four-bedroom villa is suitable for permanent residence, a holiday home, or property investment in Coral Bay.
