Description

Hotel Apartments is located in Polis just at the edge of the wild and beautiful countryside of the Akamas national park and only 3 min drive to the luxury Anassa hotel and amazing beaches. It consists of 4 small blocks built around an inviting swimming pool. The accommodation is divided into 6 studios sleeping up to 3 (which includes a kitchenette, bathroom and living and sleeping area opening onto a balcony or patio) and 24 one bedroom apartments which accommodate 4 persons (similarly they also include a kitchenette, bathroom and living room and a double bedroom opening onto a balcony or patio). In addition the complex includes a reception block with bar facilities, dining area, office, store and utility rooms, common swimming pool (15m*7m) with basement and parking area. The properties are very well maintained and looked after. The upstairs apartments offer fantastic views of the sea and the local countryside. The Hotel apartments are classified as Class A and have all the required permits and licenses. Location On the northwest side of the island, 37km from Paphos lies the unspoilt, peaceful rural are of Polis with its small fishing harbour of Latchi. Neo Chorio is only a five minute drive to Latchi. There is a good choice of tavernas and restaurants available, offering fine foods in relaxed surroundings and also excellent watersport facilities and daily boat trips at Latchi. There is also a Golf course within a 30 minute drive. Panoramic landscape together with some of the best beaches in Cyprus makes hotel and the local area is ideal for those wishing to relax, enjoy swimming in the crystal clear sea or the many walks available. The Hotel is popular with local and foreign tourists and groups who enjoy walking and cycling in the beautiful Akamas forest and the Baths of Aphrodite in the autumn and spring seasons. During the summer period, the hotel is busy with local and foreign tourists who enjoy the local beaches which are rated as one of the best on the island or simply relax by the pool. Daily bus services (from outside the hotel) and local taxis can transport guests to Latchi and Polis.
