Description

Junior villa close to facilities. Located the heart of Helios Heights village this lovely Junior Villa with large free-shaped communal pool is a great property for effortless Mediterranean style living. The villa is conveniently situated near the Aphrodite Hills tennis academy and within short distance to all resort facilities, including golf club, spa center, supermarket, restaurants and bars. The front door opens into a spacious living area leading to a tastefully decorated open-plan kitchen and dining area with its own entrance to the large rear patio. The fully equipped kitchen with ample storage is to the left of the living area. The large patio with direct access to a large communal pool is great for entertaining or quiet family gatherings. A flight of steps from the living area leads to the lower level where the laundry room can be found and to the first floor where two spacious bedrooms are situated. All bedrooms on the first floor come with private balconies offering pool views. All the rooms come with generous double beds and luxury en-suite facilities. The property is sold fully furnished.
