Description

Situated on the forward edge of Zephyros Village this 3 bedroom villa with pool has everything for a perfect family holiday. Featuring fabulous sea and sunset views from both the garden and the spacious first floor terrace, this property has ample space inside and out and is very highly recommended. Although the villa has a private swimming pool, owners and their guests will have the use of the communal swimming pool if required. The property is approached by a short footpath leading to a front door which opens into the hall area where there is a guest cloakroom with wash hand basin and wc. On this level is also a spacious and welcoming living area with fireplace, window to the rear and door leading to the terrace. The fully fitted kitchen and dining area are on the other side of the house and also have access to the terrace and the secluded garden. Stairs lead from the entrance hall to the lower floor where there are three generous bedrooms all with fitted wardrobes and access to the garden. This floor also has a family bathroom, a shower room, a utility room, and a store cupboard. The master bedroom has an en-suite bathroom with bath and shower. The garden and pool terrace, which has an area of decking as well as attractive and mature planting, can be approached either through the bedrooms or via external steps from the upper level. The sea and sunset view from both upper and lower levels is superb and is one of the most outstanding features of this highly desirable property. The villa is in Zephyros village which looks...
