Description

2 bedroom Apartment in the city Strategically positioned at the heart of Paphos's university district, this landmark development enjoys a premium location just steps from the central campus of the prestigious American University of Beirut. Located only 500 meters from the home stadium of Paphos Football Club and within close reach of the city's key governmental and financial hubs, the project sits at the very core of the urban landscape—making it a preferred residential address for high-net-worth individuals. Boasting a distinctive architectural style, the building's refined exterior combines glass and metal to create an elegant interplay of light and shadow. The design seamlessly integrates natural elements, maximizing light and ventilation to deliver a refined and luxurious living experience. Prices from + VAT This location is approximate only
