Description

2 bedroom penthouse. An excellent opportunity for investment and a valuable addition to any property portfolio. Ideally located within walking distance to essential amenities, this project stands out for its panoramic views and exceptional development potential. As one of the first major residential projects in the Lower Geroskipou area, it is poised for significant value growth. The area's appeal continues to rise, supported by ongoing public investments in infrastructure and smart technologies, driven by Paphos' recognition as the EU Commission's Capital of Smart Tourism for 2023. These developments are already enhancing both demand and market value. Residents benefit from a wide range of modern amenities. The development offers 24-hour security, ensuring a safe and peaceful environment. A fully equipped gym promotes a healthy and active lifestyle, while a spacious communal pool and on-site changing rooms provide comfort and relaxation. Prices from + VAT.
