Description

A stunning property, unique in design, with unobstructed views of the Mediterranean sea. Designed with a holiday home in mind, the house is laid out with two separate living spaces joined by a dining-living room, allowing guests to enjoy their privacy. The dining space is fitted with wall to wall glass, offering the opportunity to relax and take in the view. Each sea facing room is constructed to make the most of the wonderful aspect. The master bedroom has extended windows allowing you to wake up to a breathtaking view of the surrounding countryside and coastline. To the left of the property the open plan living area, complete with fireplace, opens up to the outside with its 10m x 5m infinity edge overflow swimming pool and 8 seater jacuzzi. A large green area surrounds the property, which adds to the feeling of serenity in the garden. Each living space has its own staircase taking you to two bedrooms, two of which are en-suite, and both are linked by a large balcony. This amazing property comes furnished and with underfloor heating and makes for a wonderful family home. It is located in a quiet road and is a five minute drive to local amenities, shops and the award winning sandy beaches of Coral Bay. There are various exclusive golf courses within Paphos as well as the many cultural sites, mountains, water sports, activities, traditional tavernas as well as restaurants serving international cuisine.
