Description

Located only a short 5-minute drive inland from the town of Paphos. Konia ranks among the most desirable as well as prestigious residential areas in the district. Within minutes you can reach the city centre with its shopping and entertainment options, the beautiful sandy beach, and the international airport. Access to the highway network leading to Limassol and the other towns is also only a few minutes away. This new development occupies a desirable site in Konia and comprises only 10 exclusive villas of different sizes to serve different needs and wishes. At a glance you will recognize the residences' streamlined contemporary design and high-end construction and finishing specifications. Take a closer look and your senses will absorb the key features of the site's elevated location: Large verandas grant you panoramic views of Paphos town and the Mediterranean Sea, while the breeze tempers the atmosphere, keeping the air noticeably cooler than on the coast. Each villa comes with essential amenities, including air conditioning, underfloor heating, a balcony, and parking Prices from + VAT
