
Villa with sea view in Paphos

Konia, Paphos

Price: 300,000 €

Specific details

Ads number	3821
Property status	Resale
Bedrooms	2
Bathrooms	2
Title deed	No
Key Features	Air Conditioners, Pool, Heating

Description

2 bedroom detached villa with private swimming in Paphos. Nested in a beautiful neighborhood in the sought after village of Konia, strategically positioned to enjoy sea, mountain and views to the surrounding area, offering both convenience and potential!, minutes from shopping, dining, schools and beaches. The distance to the village amenities, pharmacy, kiosk, village square with its traditional tavernas and restaurants is just moments away. Parking your car in your own private parking area a few steps take you to the entrance door. A lovely home that includes 2 bedrooms, 1,5 bathrooms. Upon entering you will be greeted by the open floor plan which is gorgeous with a spacious living room, dining and the fully equipped kitchen. The guest cloakroom completes the ground floor. Taking the staircase to the 1st floor you will find the two double bedrooms and the family bathroom. One of the bedrooms has access to a private balcony with lovely sea views. A door from the bedroom hall takes you to the large balcony with relaxation / sitting area enjoying views to the Mediterranean sea, nature and mountain views. Stepping outside you will find the private swimming pool, plenty of relaxation / sitting areas, mature gardens and the storage room. The current owner has never obtained Title deeds, and the developer is undergoing bankruptcy proceedings. This means that the only way to acquire the deeds would be through the Trapped Purchasers Law, which is currently suspended.